BRIEF
INTRODUCTION

STRUCTURAL CONSULTING

Often we look outside of ourselves to find what we need to support us. We all seek some form of structure in our lives. We perhaps imitate someone else's formula for success, and in that action we give our innate creative power away.

Creating is structural. But we can also create what we don't want. Finding internal clarity and awareness is key, because there is always some form of structure in play governing outcomes.

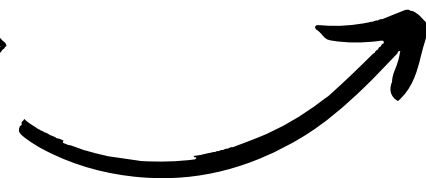

We just can't always see it. Empowering people to see the structure they're in delivers a sharp reality to course correct, and use structural tension to create desired results.

Tension is not inert, it is a force which when applied creates an advancing dynamic - sustaining momentum towards our aspirations. We simply have to get out of the way first.

FREEDOM IS FOUND IN STRUCTURE

SEEING

When we allow ourselves to be driven by what we would intrinsically love to create, we are in a robust place to receive it. Why? Because it's structural. A dominant force is driving the show.

Often we're not acting from pure essence, we're fired up from a place of scarcity. What we think we're focused on is not what we're truly focused on. The actions we take veer into a place of fixing.

But it's not personal, it's simply structural. When we can see structure we're instantly liberated as we can make choices truly in line with our higher purpose. More clarity, more energy.

Yet without a clear connection to your "gold", your pure essence or motivation, you will always be subject to weaker structures in play.

FIND YOUR GOLD

TAP INTO EVER-PRESENT POTENTIAL ONE-TO-ONE WORKSHOP

All ideas are unique because they are driven by a different motivation. Without this "gold", you are subject to weaker structures being in play i.e. decisions that stem from a place of lack or need. Your gold becomes an anchor, a pivot point, enabling you to always see where you're coming from. Because where you're coming from determines where you go to.

Outcomes:

- Find deeper clarity on your mission, on a gut resonating level !
- Lock in that deeply resonating anchor point and begin to see yourself as an authority
- Become aware of the vast creative potential to your idea/service
- Tap into and act from freely available energy.... your own heart, clarified

A FIRM TIGHTENING OF YOUR SHIP'S SAILS TO GLIDE THROUGH THE WATER EFFORTLESSLY

Your business may look successful on the surface, Clients are happy and you're receiving great testimonials as to the value that you bring, but unless you are receiving the results that you are actually seeking in your endeavours then the structure is flawed. Results never lie, they always reveal the truth of the structure in play. Structure has integrity. And so the ability to create is within you, not outside of you.

It is important to be consciously clear what you're going for to avoid dilemma and conflict by determining what takes precedence. We need to observe objective reality, because often what we think we're focused on is not what we're actually focused on.

Knowing your gold and seeing the dimensions between things will allow wisdom to emerge and transform the way you look at your business. It's all about energy... specifically creating a path of least resistance to ensure it flows efficiently towards your vision rather than a compromise. We want to know - what is the energy and where is it going to? Is it going towards your desires or what you think you can have? Unwittingly we divert our efforts to fixing things.

In consultation, underlying structure is explored, evaluated from the standpoint of effectiveness, and changed to support desired end results. Often, small changes in a structure cause major changes in a client's life and organisation. These changes can create a rapid and permanent shift from ineffective to highly effective behaviour, and an enhanced ability to create your desires.

STRUCTURAL CONSULTATIONS

Structure is naturally generative, as witnessed so beautifully in nature's golden ratio. We will objectively explore the structural relationships in play between what you are going for and what you are doing, with the purpose of establishing integrity towards your vision.

A consultation will:

- Review the structural elements in play; where is energy coming from and going to
- Identify structural conflicts which take you away from your goals
- Bring awareness and clarity to your goals, centred around a key organising factor
- Offer alignment – does it have integrity with your mission?

Outcomes:

- Immediate tweaks to your business plan – one session delivery
- Enjoy greater clarity on your efforts and increased confidence in your actions
- Build resilience for the unknown
- Get the results YOU are seeking

Not only that, without your "gold" you are subject to weaker structures being in play i.e. decisions that stem from a place of lack or need. Knowing your gold becomes an anchor, a pivot point, enabling you to always see where you're coming from.

Because where you're coming from determines where you go to.

SMALL BUSINESS & INDIVIDUALS

FOR TRUE CREATIVITY TO EMERGE, WE MUST CONNECT TO OUR
HEART AND BREAK
DOWN THE WALLS
MADE BY THE MIND

We have to go IN to be able to see the true value you are bringing to your endeavours, your passion. There's no point just trying to find a place in the market to operate from. It will not serve you to act from a superficial place if there is depth to what you offer. All endeavours that begin in the heart have depth and validity. We will elicit this "gold" to the surface.

We will dive into your motivation to see what's there beyond all the labels, doubt, resistance and internal conflict to witness and hold the gold that is uniquely yours. There is an energy that is supremely yours; whether or not others are on a similar mission. We will discover your dynamic urge to serve and connect with others, and bring it back to what's important to you. We are serving your heart first. The question is: What would you truly love?

NOT ALL VISION IS THE SAME

Realising dreams as teams is a challenge. Our brains are limiting but our hearts aren't.

We have to collectively overcome perceived lack and limitation by creating high vibrational structures that enable people to step into their greatness and full creativity, and replace the knee-jerk reaction to problem-solve.

Note, this is not a positivity brigade!

We devise naturally generative organisational structure, rooted in authenticity and reality.

TEAMS & COMMUNITY GROUPS

MOVING ENERGY IN THE SAME DIRECTION, ACHIEVING DREAMS AS TEAMS

Sometimes when we go for something as a team, we may not be focusing on entirely the same outcome, and we will certainly have varying motivations. When we realise how structure affects our personal endeavours it's amplified in a group scenario.

Creating high vibrational structure that rallies around a clear organising factor, will deliver on a deep and carefully articulated shared intention.

We step out of compromise and control mechanisms which drain natural momentum, diverting focus and energy away, and establish structural tension as a force to drive advancing behaviours. Leading to realisation of the group aims.

Benefits:

- Establish absolute clarity
- Free up momentum by letting go of what's not serving the highest intention
- Empower individuals to be in their greatness

Designed to empower, not tell

You don't know what you don't know until you can see it.

When we see the structure we're in, we are liberated from perceived limitations and the floor is ours.

We explore and expose unseen dimensions so you can advance on your goals effortlessly in awareness.

Formula-free, fluff-free and compromise-free

Nothing obstructs the heart
so we quit manipulating an outcome.

Every outcome is the result of structure.
We work with inner, not outer, locus.

Trained and mentored by Robert Fritz (USA), legend of structural dynamics. Few practice his consulting methodology, which is adopted into this framework.

Your only task is to expand

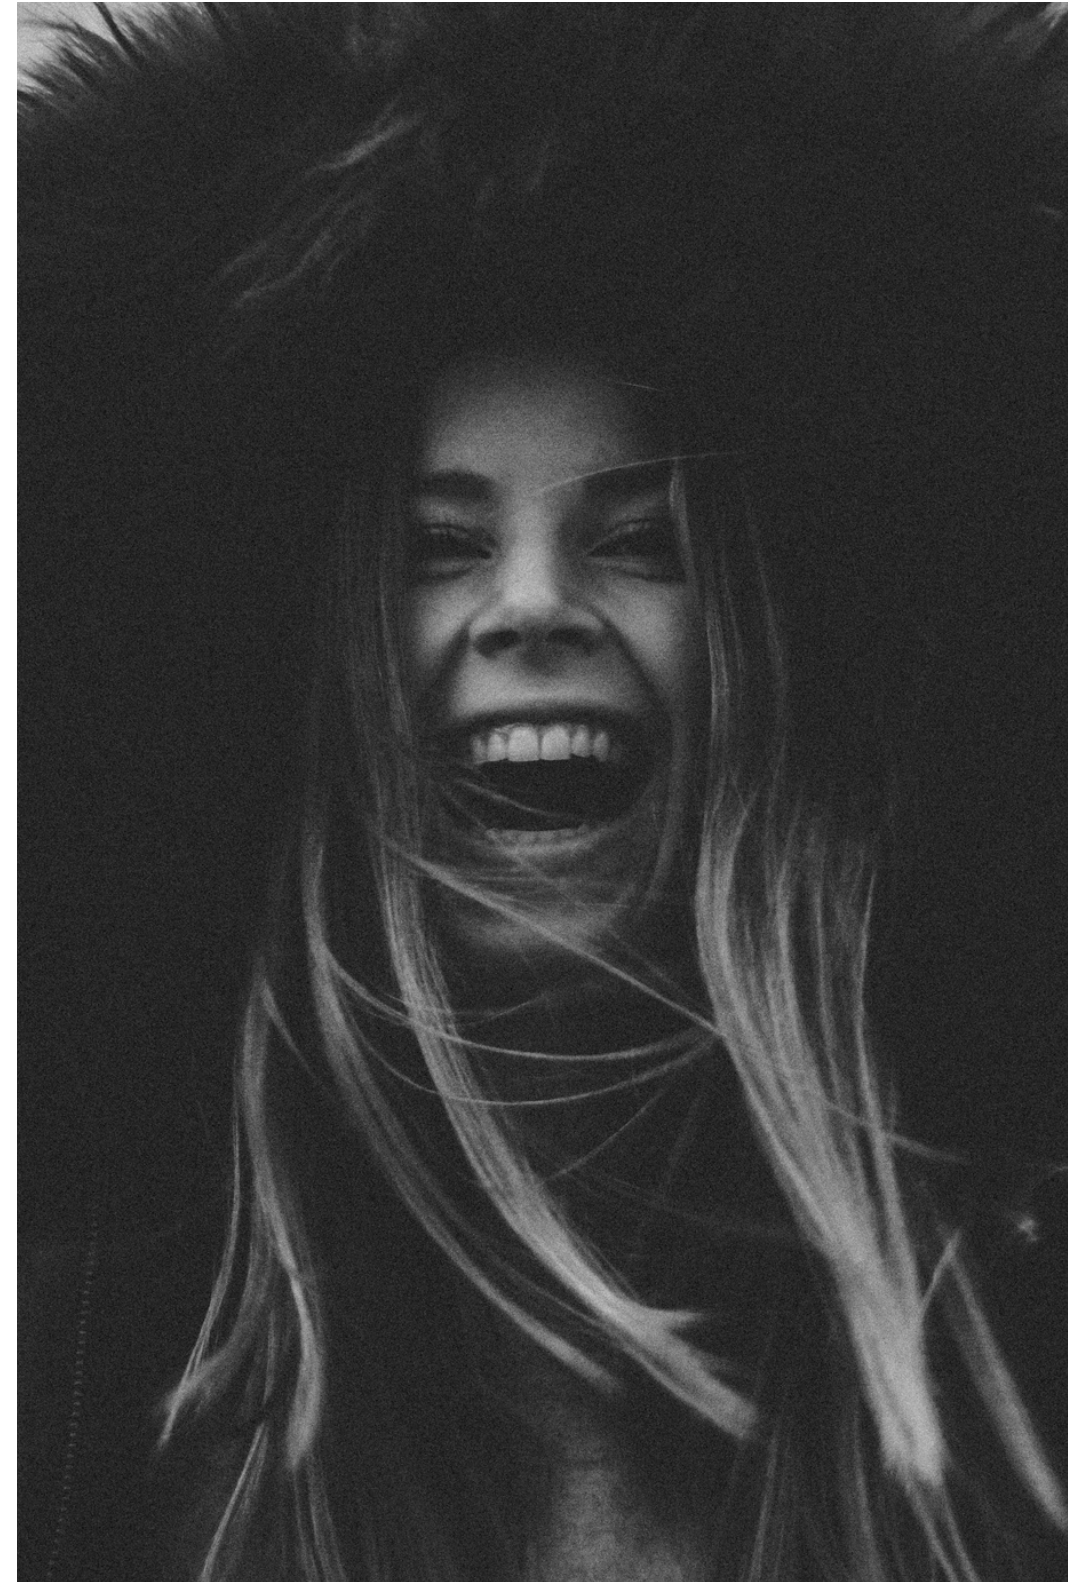

If you're seeking to be in the driving seat of tension and possibility and enable your spirit to thrive, then this is for you.
